NAME OF PUB

Omit 'Ye' or 'The'; use '&' not 'and'.

NEW ENTRY ☐ Tick if pub is a new entry i.e. was not in 2020 edition

ADDRESS LINE 1

ADDRESS LINE 2

Address Lines 1 & 2: These should contain only the first part of the address. Further address details to go below.

TOWN/VILLAGE

Heading under which the pub will be listed in the Guide. See guidelines for how to display city suburbs/areas.

COUNTY/AREA/LONDON POSTAL SECTOR

Section within which the pub will be listed in the Guide.

POST CODE

Please split into two parts. Check with Royal Mail.

DIRECTIONS TO PUB

Only needed when difficult to find or in a large town. E.g. '400 yds from A304/B296 jct. next to town hall'.

ORDNANCE SURVEY GRID REFERENCE

Only required if the pub is in a remote area. The first two boxes should contain the relevant National Grid reference (two letters), the other boxes should contain the six-figure detailed grid reference.

example T L 1 6 5 0 7 2

LOCALE

☐ Please tick if this pub is an accredited member of CAMRA's LocAle scheme.

PUB OPENING HOURS

Please use the 12 hour clock. Only include Sunday hours if different and mention any days the pub is closed. Don't forget to ask about seasonal variations.

See examples in sample entries overleaf

SUNDAY HOURS

TELEPHONE STD

WEBSITE http://

Individual pub website only, NOT web address for pub group (e.g. Wetherspoon, Punch Taverns, etc.).

E-MAIL ADDRESS

Please provide an e-mail address for the pub where there is one. IMPORTANT – For marketing purposes

PERMANENT BEERS

Permanent beers only. Six beers maximum. List them alphabetically by brewery, then in order of strength. Guest and seasonal beers are no longer listed here. If guest and/or seasonal beers are available or if the beers are constantly changing (previously listed as 'Beer range varies') please leave this section blank and fill in the section 'CHANGING BEERS' below. Don't forget the dispense symbol for each beer: H G P or A (handpump, gravity, electric pump or air pressure). For House beers please see below. Please refer to attached guidelines for more detailed information.

See examples in sample entries overleaf

CHANGING BEERS

Please give the number of changing (non-permanent) beers available (guest and/or seasonal beers or varying beers if the range is ever-changing). Please also indicate if these tend to be sourced locally, regionally or nationally (see guidelines for details; tick one option only). Please include dispense method(s).
Please give up to three examples of breweries (not beers) that are often featured, in alphabetical order.
Please leave blank if no examples can be given.

☐ Number of beers ☐ Local ☐ Regional ☐ National (tick one option only)

Method of dispense: H Handpump G Gravity P Electric Pump A Air Pressure

HOUSE BEER

If a house beer is available, please tick the box and include the name of the source brewery. If this is not known, a house beer cannot be listed. Please include dispense method.

☐ House beer Source brewery

CELLARMANSHIP AND DISPENSE

This section is extremely important. Please consider it very carefully.

Tick boxes as appropriate

☐ Return Tray
This pub uses return trays (also known as Autovacs or beer economisers) on some or all of its real ales.

☐ Misleading Dispense
This pub does not use fake or false handpumps.

Campaign for Real Ale

Entries should be up to a maximum of 80 words and not less than 50. It is important to reach the maximum wherever possible: too many short entries will unbalance the Guide and lead to an unsatisfactory design. Do not break words at the end of a line. Please write neatly: unclear handwriting can lead to errors. Please see guidelines and sample entries overleaf for advice on how to write descriptions.
