

CAMRA Aberdeen, Grampian & Northern Isles 2020 Good Beer Guide Voting

Fellow branch member(s),

It's that time of year when we vote for our local entries for the next edition of CAMRA's Good Beer Guide (GBG). Our branch nominates the entries for the Aberdeen, Grampian (Aberdeen, Aberdeenshire & Moray) and the Northern Isles (Orkney and Shetland) sections in the GBG.

You can vote for or against as many pubs as you like, as long as you've been there within the last year. A year in this case is defined as the interval between two GBG votes i.e. mid-February to mid-February. There is only one restriction - you can't vote for (or for that matter against) any pub where you have a financial interest e.g. you are the owner, manager or licensee. Votes are limited to current branch members, so you must include your membership number on the voting form. Joint members each get a vote - please use a separate voting form. When voting, please remember that the main criterion for inclusion in the Good Beer Guide is the quality of the real ale served in the pub.

We have a weighted voting system, in that you can vote according to your strength of conviction regarding each pub.

For each pub, you can vote as follows:

- Blank: I have not been in this pub within the last year
- 2 : Strongly against, "over my dead body" (not literally, please)
  - 1 : Against inclusion in the Good Beer Guide, but not absolutely
  - 0 : I have been there, but I can't make up my mind
  - +1 : I am generally in favour of this pub being in the Good Beer Guide
  - +2 : This pub should definitely be in the Good Beer Guide

The votes will be weighted arithmetically, i.e. a plus or minus 2 vote will count twice as much as an equivalent plus or minus 1 vote.

The reason why we want to differentiate between "blank" and "zero" votes is to have an idea of how many of our voting members visit each pub, even if they do not necessarily feel strongly enough about it to vote one way or another, and how many of our outlets are not being visited.

In an attempt to make things equitable we have a geographical weighting in favour of pubs outside the Aberdeen city area. This comes in the shape of a multiplicative factor:

1x Pubs in central Aberdeen, defined as the area formed by the river Dee, the river Don and the A90. In addition, there is an additional restriction of no more than 10 entries for this area.

2x Pubs in the rest of Aberdeen City, and the near commuter area - including the public transport corridors as far as and including Stonehaven, Banchory, Westhill, Inverurie, Oldmeldrum and Ellon, but not pubs inside this area with poor or non-existent public transport links.

3x Pubs that are anywhere else in the branch area.

Pubs in the Northern Isles, which have their own quota in the Good Beer Guide, are only ranked against each other so do not need a weighting factor.

Even though the list of pubs is as accurate as we can make it, there may be mistakes in the list. Please indicate if you think we may have missed a real ale outlet, or if any of the listed outlets no longer sell real ale.

The voting deadline is the 9th February 2019. The vote results will be presented at the "GBG selection" meeting, which this year is being held on Saturday 16th of February at 14:00 in the snug at Ma Cameron's, Little Belmont Street in Aberdeen. Until the publication of the 2020 Good Beer Guide, the outcome of the vote will not be published, and must be treated as confidential.

In addition to the votes for the Good Beer Guide, we would also like your nominations for the "Pub of the Year" for the Branch. The branch selects a local "Pub of the Year" for each of the following geographical areas within our branch area:

- Aberdeen City - City
- Aberdeenshire and Moray - Shire
- Orkney and Shetland - Northern Isles

Please indicate at the bottom of the form which pubs you nominate for each of the three geographical areas. Once again, you must have been in the pub you nominate within the last year, i.e. you might not be able to vote for a pub in a certain area and in all cases, you may only nominate one pub within each area.

The branch selection for "Pub of the Year" for each geographical area will also take place at the GBG selection meeting as mentioned above. The branch area "Pub of the Year" is selected among the three winning pubs, and will also be the branch nominee for the Scottish and national Pub of the Year competitions. The results will be announced shortly after the voting is concluded.

The branch is also having a vote on the branch beer of the year. The restriction here is that it must be cask conditioned and come from a Scottish brewery. So plenty to choose from. Again indicate your nomination in the appropriate place on the voting form.

You can vote in three ways:

- Return a paper version of the form to the returning officer
Richard A. Jones
41 Gray Street
Aberdeen AB10 6JD
- Send an electronic version of the voting form to the returning officer
treasurer@aberdeencamra.org.uk
- Vote using the form found on the branch website :

Help save CAMRA money

If you have received this notification in the post it is because CAMRA does not have a record of a current email address for you. This lack of an email address incurs an expense to CAMRA. These not insignificant expenses soon mount up. If you don't believe us then check out the annual accounts (available at a branch meeting usually around March) how much CAMRA spends each year on postage. If you are willing to supply an email address, which will only be used by CAMRA to communicate campaigning issues until you ask us to stop, then please log on to the national CAMRA website www.camra.org.uk using your membership number and password and use the link to My Membership to add your email address. If that is too difficult you could email your address to membership@aberdeencamra.org.uk and our membership secretary will update it on your behalf.

In anticipation of your votes, thanks & cheers,

Richard A. Jones
